

Student World Affairs Council Program

Teacher Program Offerings

✓ Washington D.C. Spring Break Study Tour

In 2019, the Council will take educators on a special-access tour of Washington D.C.!

- Tentative Dates: March 9 – 16, 2019
- Highlights: Smithsonian National Museum of African American History; meeting with Ambassador of Latvia at the Embassy of Latvia; White House tour; Capitol Hill Tour, hosted by the office of Senator Cruz; meeting with Ambassador Sheikh Mashal Bin Hamad Al Thani at Embassy of Qatar; Quantico/FBI Tour.
- Scholarships available at fundforteachers.org and corporate scholarship details available beginning Fall 2018.

✓ Fall & Spring Professional Development Workshops

Our Global Perspectives for Educators workshops offer 6 hours of professional development credit, breakfast and lunch included, and in-depth presentations by expert speakers on topics related to international affairs.

- November 2018: Francophone Canada
- February 2019: India

✓ $150 Bus Scholarships

Each SWAC Faculty Sponsor qualifies for $150 in bus scholarships per year! Simply request a reimbursement form by emailing edu@wachouston.org and we will take care of your transportation to attend any SWAC event or Academic WorldQuest.

✓ International Teacher of the Year Award

In 2019, the Council will honor a teacher who has spent considerable time and energy serving their SWAC chapter and supporting their students' interests in international affairs. This teacher will be honored at the annual Jones Award Luncheon on April 17, 2019.