Traveler Responsibilities & Expectations

- Remain mindful and considerate of the country, cultures, and customs you experience. It is a good idea to do some research about your destination, so you are informed about what to expect before the trip begins.
- Be respectful of the WAC host and tour guides who are working to make the trip run smoothly. They are not stewards and do not provide a concierge service to travelers.
- You are expected to maintain your own luggage and personal effects throughout the trip.
- Do not stray off alone, keep an eye on your personal belongings, and be aware of your surroundings in order to avoid any potentially dangerous or difficult situations.
- Be careful to avoid injury, especially as some trips require a higher level of physical activity. Look over the itinerary and make sure you do not have any limitations to any planned activities.
- Be considerate of the planned schedule and of other travelers.
- Communicate with WAC host about any personal concerns during the trip.

Responsibilities of the WAC host

- Represent the World Affairs Council of Greater Houston and its mission abroad.
- Serve as a point of contact between the World Affairs Council of Greater Houston, the travelers, and the tour guides.
- Maintain and distribute tips for all travelers when appropriate for all accrued services.
- Be positive, engaged, and promote the engagement of the travelers.
- Enforce the planned schedule while also being considerate of guests needs.
- Maintain communication, if available, with the WACH office throughout the duration of the trip.
- Report all incidents immediately to the WACH office.

I accept the above expectations and responsibilities in full and acknowledge that by traveling with the World Affairs Council of Greater Houston, I am representing this organization and its members in a positive and respectful manner.

Refund and General Travel Policy Notices

Please initial on every line to indicate your agreement to these terms (required):

	Your reservation will be confirmed upon receipt of your $1000 deposit . The deposit is non-refundable . Your deposit will be completely refunded if the World Affairs Council is forced to cancel the trip because it does not meet the minimum required travelers or extenuating circumstances within the destination(s) of the planned trip prevents departure.
	All travel expenses are pre-paid in advance by the World Affairs Council three months prior to departure. A cancellation by you after the posted final payment date above deems the entirety of your payment 100% non-refundable .
	Each traveler understands, agrees, and assumes any and all costs and risks associated with international travel, including those impacted by current or changing health guidelines. Each traveler understands that travel guidelines can change rapidly and agrees to abide by all international travel restrictions and guidelines.
	Travel insurance is highly recommended for each traveler. Travel insurance is a separate expense and not included or provided in this travel package. Each traveler is strongly encouraged to evaluate your own specific needs and risk comfort level. Travel insurance is not provided by World Affairs Council.
	If any traveler proves to be either slowing down the group or harmful to her/himself or to the group, the World Affairs Council has the right to terminate that traveler's expedition without any refunds.
	World Affairs Council travelers are prepared to obey and respect the laws of the United States as well as the laws of the country/countries they are visiting.
	The World Affairs Council of Houston is responsible for the arrangements and services described in their brochures. The World Affairs Council of Houston, its employees, and agents cannot be held responsible, in the absence of their own gross neglect, for events over which they have no control, nor for acts and omissions by persons, companies or agencies, including hotels, airlines, restaurants, and sea and land transportation companies or any other unnamed entities that are not directly controlled by the World Affairs Council of Houston.

HEALTH WAIVER FORM

I acknowledge that for reasons not reasonably foreseeable at this time, these travel plans may be interrupted or canceled by a government entity or other third party over which The World Affairs Council of Greater Houston has no control. Moreover, I understand that should I elect to purchase travel insurance, the terms of the policy will dictate whether, and to what extent, coverage for any financial loss may exist under the circumstances.

By signing this agreement, I acknowledge the contagious nature of airborne illnesses and the existence of other illnesses in foreign countries and voluntarily assume the risk that I may be exposed to or infected by any such illness while traveling. I voluntarily agree to assume all of the foregoing risks and accept sole responsibility for any injury to myself, illness, damage, loss, claim, liability, or expense, of any kind, that I may experience or incur in connection with traveling with The World Affairs Council of Greater Houston.

As travel continues around the world, all destinations, governments, airports, air carriers, hotels, restaurants, transfer companies, car rental companies, shops and excursions have established health safety measures and precautions which may change from day to day. These safety measures may include, but are not limited to: curfews, attraction closings and reduced hours, size of group gatherings, social distancing requirements, health screenings, self-quarantine requirements, etc. By signing this agreement, I accept full responsibility for myself to have all the necessary provisions for travel (such as required immunizations, test results, pre-travel questionnaires, etc.).

By signing below, I hereby agree to hold harmless The World Affairs Council of Greater Houston and release the organization from any and all liability for any damages, including but not limited to monetary losses, I may incur as a result of such interruption or cancellation of these travel plans.
